

Let's talk about the weather.

Want to be a voice for your community and share your experience living through extreme weather?

Atlanta is no stranger to extreme weather, intense rain, flooding, extreme heat and drought. Our climate is actively changing and some people get hit harder than others (over and over again).

qb. (more about us at www.consultqb.com) is gathering a group of people to participate in The Climate Justice Listening Tour.

We want to hear your story including the tough parts of living through events like extreme heat, record rains & flooding, and all the rest. We can't turn back time, but we can look for better solutions that work for everyone.

Do you ...

- Want to get paid to talk about how extreme weather has affected you and your community? Compensation is $30/hour.
